ITAC is investing in the Indigenous tourism industry in NEW BRUNSWICK

The Indigenous Tourism Association of Canada (ITAC) is the national voice of Indigenous tourism in Canada. Through innovative, Indigenous-led solutions, such as the Indigenous Tourism Destination Fund (ITDF), ITAC has ambitious plans to invest significantly in New Brunswick.

Between April 2024 and March 2030, ITAC plans to invest more than

$76 Million*
in New Brunswick.

* Projected investment based on the ITDF achieving its contribution targets

*900 K Recruitment, Training and

Training and Retention

$48 M

Infrastructure Development

$3.5 M

Development

and Promotion

Business

$15 M
Airport
Indigenization

Indigenous Destination
Development

Between April 2020 and March 2024, ITAC invested more than $961,000

in New Brunswick.

$239,952

in direct support for the Indigenous Tourism Association of New Brunswick

$721,665

in direct support for Indigenous tourism businesses in New Brunswick

$506,665

to 22 businesses through the COVID-19 Stimulus Development Fund (2020-22)

$40,000

to 4 businesses through the Tourism Relief Fund Business Support Program (2022-23)

$175,000

to 7 businesses through the Indigenous TourismFund Micro and Small Business Stream (2023-24)

Plus, during this same time period, ITAC invested over $8.3 Million nationwide into marketing—featuring and promoting market ready member businesses from New Brunswick.

2030 Vision ITAC's 2030 Vision is for Canada to be the top Indigenous tourism destination in the world. To make that vision a reality, the Indigenous tourism industry needs to grow significantly. ITAC has developed an investment plan to achieve the following growth targets in New Brunswick ▶

22

471 new job

ITAC will receive a projected $16.5 Million per year to administer the Indigenous Tourism Destination Fund—less than 4% of the total investment. This will cover program delivery, accounting, reporting and other administrative costs.

ITAC is investing in Indigenous tourism across Canada

The Indigenous Tourism Association of Canada (ITAC) is the national voice of Indigenous tourism in Canada. Through innovative, Indigenous-led solutions, such as the Indigenous Tourism Destination Fund (ITDF), ITAC has ambitious plans to invest significantly in every province and territory.

Between April 2024 and March 2030, ITAC plans to invest

$2.6 Billion*

across Canada.

* Projected investment based on the ITDF achieving its contribution targets

$30 M

Recruitment, Training and Retention

$500 M

$1.6 B

Infrastructure

Development

$117 M

Development

and Promotion

Business

Airport Indigenization

$300 M

Indigenous Destination Development Between April 2020 and March 2024, ITAC invested more than $24.3 Million

across Canada.

$2.9 Million

in direct support for Provincial and Territorial Tourism Organizations and other regional initiatives

$21.4 Million

in direct support for Indigenous tourism businesses in Canada

$16,287,400

to 681 businesses through the COVID-19 Stimulus Development Fund (2020-22)

$1,335,547

to 136 businesses through the Tourism Relief Fund Business Support Program (2022-23)

$3,800,695 to 153 businesses through the Indigenous Tourism Fund Micro and Small Business Stream (2023-24)

Plus, during this same time period, ITAC invested over $8.3 Million nationwide into marketing—featuring and promoting market ready member businesses from Canada.

2030 Vision ITAC's 2030 Vision is for Canada to be the top Indigenous tourism destination in the world. To make that vision a reality, the Indigenous tourism industry needs to grow significantly. ITAC has developed an investment plan to achieve the following growth targets in Canada ▶

825

22,200

ITAC will receive a projected $16.5 Million per year to administer the Indigenous Tourism Destination Fund—less than 4% of the total investment. This will cover program delivery, accounting, reporting and other administrative costs.

